PSA intervenes to secure overdue overtime payments for EMS staff

The PSA successfully intervened on behalf of the Emergency Medical Services (EMS) personnel at eThekweni District and other districts regarding outstanding overtime payments for the period November 2023 to 31 March 2024. After being approached by affected EMS staff, the PSA engaged with the head office of the Department of Health. Thanks to the PSA's diligent efforts, the overdue overtime payments have now been processed and paid.

The PSA remains steadfast in its commitment of advocating for and protecting the rights of members. The PSA understands the vital role that EMS personnel play in communities and the Union is dedicated to ensuring they receive fair compensation. Members any concerns or who require assistance, are requested to contact the PSA.
